

Clark Ogilvie, U.S. House Committee on Agriculture

Clark Ogilvie is Deputy Staff Director on the Democratic staff of the U.S. House Committee on Agriculture. This is Ogilvie's third time with the Committee having served from 2005-2014 and from 2018-2019. During that time, he helped enact three Farm Bills and craft both the derivatives title of the Dodd-Frank Act and the 2008 reauthorization of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC). In addition to working on the Committee, Ogilvie served for two and a half years as Chief of Staff of the CFTC and two years as General Counsel for the Farm Credit Administration.

Originally from Memphis, he has a law degree from The George Washington University and a B.A. from Rhodes College.
